AUDIT AND RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER

1.0 Background

The Board of Adslot Ltd (Adslot or the Company) has determined that the Company will follow best practice in corporate governance and establish an Audit and Risk Committee (“the Committee”). This Charter governs the scope, composition and conduct of this Committee.

Audit and Risk Committees have a key role in assisting the Board to fulfill its corporate governance objectives in relation to financial reporting, internal controls, risk management and audit.

2.0 Membership

The Committee is a committee of the Board.

The Committee will be members of and be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Committee will comprise at least three members of which the majority shall be non-executive directors that have diverse, complimentary backgrounds. All members shall be financially literate or be made financially literate within a reasonable period of time after appointment.

The Chair of the Committee shall be a non-executive independent director, other than the Chair of the Board, and shall be appointed by the Board. The Chair should have a strong finance, accounting and/or business background.

The Secretary to the Board shall be the Secretary to the Committee.

Non-Committee members may attend meetings by invitation including other directors, the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, external auditors and other specialists as deemed appropriate by the Committee.

Members must immediately inform the Board of any conflicts of interest that arise.

3.0 Committee Meetings

The Committee will meet at least two times each year. These meetings will be to:

- a) Review and approve external and internal (if required) audit plans;
- b) Review external and internal audit reports;
- c) Review and recommend to the Board for approval Half Year and Annual Financial Report;
- d) Consider the Company’s risk management and internal control systems.

Additional Committee meetings may be convened as the Chair of the Committee considers necessary, taking in to account requests from any member.

A quorum for meetings will be two members.

4.0 Purpose

- a) Overseeing that management carries out its risk management roles in light of guidance from the Board and within the risk appetite set by the Board.
- b) Reviewing and assessing the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's risk management system for identifying business risks, including the conduct of its legal and compliance programs.
- c) Regularly reviewing the status of identified business risks and Management's adherence to published risk management practices.
- d) Regularly reviewing and updating the risk profile and disclosing any material change to the risk profile, including regular review of existing risks and the identification of new and emerging risks facing the Company, including financial and non-financial matters.
- e) Monitor management's performance against the Company's risk management framework, including whether it is operating within the risk appetite set by the board.
- f) Consider material exposure to environmental or social risks and review annually.

5.4 Other Responsibilities

The Audit and Risk Committee is responsible for:

- a) overseeing the implementation of the Company's corporate code of conduct, for employees and directors, and assessing compliance;
- b) overseeing the implementation of the Company's Whistleblower and Anti-Bribery and Corruption policies, and assessing compliance;

- c) assessing and recommending to the Board for adoption the scope, cover and cost of insurance, including insurance relating to directors' and officers' liability, professional indemnity, crime and cyber security; and
- d) where it considers appropriate, investigating any complaint of allegation made to it.

The Committee should be immediately informed of all legal and other complaints made against the Company.

6.0 Access

In order to discharge its duties, the Committee shall have free and open access and communication with the Management of the Company, the external auditor and other external advisers to the Company where required for specific matters.

The Committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books and records, facilities and personnel of the Company and has the authority to seek independent professional advice as it deems necessary to carry out its duties.

7.0 Reporting

The Chair of the Committee shall report to the Board subsequent to each Committee meeting. Such reporting shall include:

- a) copies of Agenda's and minutes of meetings;
- b) results of external audit process;
- c) formal resolutions; and
- d) details of other material issues of which the Board should be informed.

8.0 Non-Consensus

Where the Committee is unable to reach a consensus on the matter, the Chair of the Committee shall report this to the Board. The Board shall determine whether or not the matter can be resolved by it or by independent advice.

9.0 Committee Performance

The performance of the Committee will be informally reviewed by the Board annually.

10.0 Charter Review

The Committee Charter shall be reviewed annually and revised as required.

This Charter was approved and adopted by the Board on 28 January 2022.
